GRAB BAG GOES TO CRANK

WASHINGTON-OWNED COLT DEFEATS DEER TRAP AND TOM McTAGGART.

Vivid Shows Speed, but Is Beaten by Nebraska—Trial by Jury Disappoints and Gainer Wins—Hubbub Takes His Race.

(By J. L. Dempsey.)

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., August 16.—The valuable and much-coveted Grab Bag Handicap was the headliner of today's program at the Saratoga track and attracted a splendid gathering to witness its running. It furnished an upset in the victory of Samuel Ross' Crank, which, having an inner post position at the start, got away with an advantage and led for the entire race. Deer Trap finished in second place with the favorite, Tom McTaggart, third. The placed trio were alone in their struggle during the final quarter, the others being stragglers, the send off having eliminated most of them.

The Grab Bag Handicap was run for the third time today and its brief history follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1914	Trial by Jury	118	T. Davies.	$4,200	1:13
1915	Bromo	107	T. McTag't.	2,800	1:14
1916	Crank	104	L. Mink	2,650	1:13⅘

The backers of favorites met with frequent disappointment during the afternoon. Their troubles began in the opener when John Sanford's Meteorite could do no better than run third. Thomas Hitchcock's first-time starter, Nebraska, got up in the last stride to overtake H. P. Whitney's good-looking Vivid, also starting for the first time.

Knight of Merci was a pronounced choice for the steeplechase and won in the easiest fashion from Early Light. The latter would have done better but for blundering badly at several of the hedges.

Trial by Jury was the favored one in the third and managed to land third money, while Gainer won off from Grumpy. The Greentree Stable, in whose colors Gainer ran, made it a double when Hubbub won the fifth.

Katenka, which was bid up to $2,500 and bought by E. A. Burke, has been sold back to J. O. Keene for $500 less.

The Gifford A. Cochran English thoroughbreds, which reached New York on the transport Manchuria, have been taken to Mount Kisco.

Jockey T. McTaggart, finding that he could scale 115 pounds with ease, has decided on returning to the saddle and will take mounts hereafter in races where he does not need to reduce. He will continue in H. P. Whitney's service.

The scarcity of stalls at Belmont Park will cause many owners here to ship direct to Havre de Grace after the close of the Saratoga meeting. Among those who will leave for the Maryland track from here are J. Marrone, R. O. Miller, James Fitzsimmons and John Whalen.

J. H. Romaine, father of Mrs. J. C. Yeager, returned here today and instructed trainer R. E. Campbell to ship Huntress, Luzzi, Pluto, Charles Ed and Ginger Quill to Lexington at the close of racing here and campaign the horses through the Kentucky fall season. At its close the horses will be sold at auction.

Frigerio, in E. R. Bradley's stable, is out of training for the rest of the racing season. Mr. Bradley contemplates a new departure for next winter. Instead of wintering his yearlings and other racers at his Idle Hour Farm in Lexington during the cold months, he will have them transferred to Palmetto Park at Charleston, S. C., where trainer Cliff Hammon will give them a long and slow preparation for their next year's campaign.

The consignments of yearlings from Kentucky to be sold next Saturday arrived this morning. They include the consignments of J. S. Barbee, Capt. Thomas J. Clay, C. W. Moore, Dr. J. C. Carrick, O. P. Randolph, Sanford C. Lyne, F. D. Knight, Thomas Piatt, J. D. Carr, T. C. Bradley, A. Bowman and others.

General Manager John Hachmeister of Douglas Park and Latonia was an arrival this morning and at once became active on behalf of the stakes of his associations. He found a ready response to his liberal offerings and expects a record list of easterners to engage in the racing at Latonia. "We will have big meetings in Kentucky next fall, judging by the keen interest of horsemen in the stakes and the numerous expressions of an intention to race there," said Mr. Hachmeister. "We will have all of our old horsemen with us again and much new timber." Mr. Hachmesister will remain here until next Sunday.

Captain Thomas J. Clay one of the stewards on the Kentucky tracks, was an arrival this morning and will remain for some time.

James Butler paid his first visit to the track this afternoon.

James F. Johnson of the Quincy Stable has presented to the New York Breeding Bureau the three-year-old colt Tattletale by Ogden—Love Note. The colt bowed a tendon recently after a work-out.

When told that trainer Jack McCormack was of the opinion taht his charge, Spur, was the better three-year-old, despite the handy manner in which Dodge took his measure yesterday, owner J. S. Ward said: "If they think Spur can beat Dodge, I am willing to give them a race for $10,000 of my money." Mr. Ward had several flattering offers for Dodge this morning, but turned them down.

GREAT ENTRY LISTS IN TORONTO RACES.

Best Campaigners of the Canadian Circuit Reinforced by New Candidates.

Nominations for the Ontario Jockey Club stakes show all the good horses that have been racing on the Canadian circuit, as well as many that will make a first appearance. The Grey Stakes for two-year-olds at a mile has forty-four nominations, and the entry of thirty-four in the Autumn Cup, like that for the longer distance event, is an increase over last year. Perhaps the most interesting result has been the entry received for the new Canadian-bred two-year-old event, the Lansdowne Nursery Handicap, a splendid total of thirty-seven home-bred youngsters. The entries for the various events, which closed a week ago, are as follows:

F. Grainger, Morpeth, Jack Winston, Garter, Cynosure.

GOOD ENTRIES IN ENGLISH STAKES.

The entries for the Derby and Oaks of 1918 must be deemed quite satisfactory, there being two hundred and eighty-seven subscribers to the one and two hundred and five to the other race, with his majesty responsible for five in each, and all the most influential patrons of the turf, including the three stewards of the Jockey Club, are contributors. American owners are not as well represented as usual, and one misses in particular the name of Mr. A. Belmont, who was for some years associated with the Palace House Stable, and had pleasant experiences of classic racing when Norman III. won the Two Thousand and Tracery, a far greater horse than he, triumphed in the St. Leger. This fine young stallion remains at Mr. L. de Rothschild's Southcourt Stud, Lady James Douglas is the most conspicuous nominator for the Derby with ten, one more than Mr. Hulton, who, it is said, intends to dispose of his yearlings in the autumn. Lord Anglessy comes in with four, Major Astor with a similar number, Lord Carnarvon has entered five, Lord Derby five, and Lord Falmouth and Mr. Fairie three each. Mr. A. James nominates four, Sir R. Jardine three, the brothers Joel four each, Lord Lonsdale five, Lord Rosebery four, Baron Edouard and Mr. J. de Rothschild four each, and Mr. Leopold three, Mr. Mortimer Singer four, Sir W. Tatem four, the Duke of Westminster three, Mr. Farr (Korksop Stud) six, Sir Mark Sykes (Sledmere) six, and Mr. Whitworth seven, but search is made in vain for the name of the Duke of Portland in either race. All the stakes recently closed for Newmarket meetings have done fairly, with thirty-three entries for the St. Ives Handicap, thirty-seven for the Two Middle Miles Handicap, forty-five for the Redmere Nursery, thirty-eight for the Chesterton Nursery, forty for the Culford Three-Year-Old Handicap, forty-one for the Barton Mills Nursery, forty-two for the Lakenham Handicap, twenty-five for the Bury St. Edmunds Handicap, twenty-four (inclusive of Diadem, the Swynford—Marchetta filly, Knutsford, Grand Fleet and Sunset Glow) for the York Two-Year-Old Stakes (substitute for the Gimcrack), and twenty-nine for the Fakenham Nursery, all of which races figure in the program for the Third Extra meeting.—London Sportsman.

OFFICIALS OF THE MOUNT ROYAL MEETING.

Montreal, Que., August 16.—The officials for the second and final meeting this year of the Back River Jockey Club were announced. There will be one or two changes from the officials of the meeting held in July. Martin Nathanson will be presiding steward and racing secretary, while Charles Campeau will be presiding judge. Eddie. St. Pere will again be associate judge and William Murray will do the starting. The patrol judges will be A. M. Duggane, W. Ferguson and X. Narbonn, while W. W. Lyles will be official timer and paddock judge. The associate timers will be Frank Calder and Davey Richard.

LEXINGTON MEETING'S PROGRAM BOOK.

To Be Distributed Among Horsemen Today and Is Extremely Liberal in Money.

Lexington, Ky., August 16.—The program book for the fall ten days of the Kentucky Association's fall meeting September 6 to 16, will be issued to horsemen by racing secretary W. H. Shelley tomorrow. It calls for seventy races with added money of $40,000. The only purse of less than $500, is one of $400 for a race for gentlemen riders. Conditions of only two races are unwritten. They are reserved for the disposal of runup money, should there be any. Thirty one races are for $500; thirty-two for $600; three for $700; one for $800 and two for $1,000. Nineteen races are for two-year-olds, ten for three-year-olds, thirty-four for three-year-olds and over and five for four-year-olds and over. Three races are at five-eighths, eleven at five and one-half furlongs, twenty-six at three-quarters, four at one mile, three at a mile and seventy yards, eleven at a mile and a sixteenth, five at a mile and an eighth and five at a mile and a quarter. The book represents one of racing secretary W. H. Shelley's best efforts and fine sport at the Lexington course next month is assured.

Horsemen returning from Saratoga today stated it is rumored there that Henry McDaniel is soon to succeed Frank M. Taylor as trainer of the racers owned by Willis Sharpe Kilmer of Binghampton, N. Y.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Emil Herz has bought Chieftain, which J. W. Hedrick claimed at Saratoga Saturday.

The wife of jockey J. Loftus is confined to the Saratoga Hospital undergoing a slight operation.

Fred Burlew will leave for France within a short time to resume his duties at the Mackay Farm in Normandy.

The Irish Derby has been raised to the value of $17,500, the Irish Oaks and Irish St. Leger are each of the value of $7,500, and the breeders of the winners in each instance receive $300, and of the second $125.

J. T. Smith, owner of Belle of the Kitchen, received a telegram at Hillcrest Park, Toronto, Saturday, that his twin brother had died, and immediately disposed of his horse to C. W. Hall for $350 prior to his departure for his home.

The thirteen yearlings bought in France from M. Edmond Blanc by J. E. Widener, will be turned over to Jerry Welsh, who will break them, after which they will be brought to this country and turned over to Thomas Welsh in the fall.

Lieut. Stanley Wootton and trooper Frank Wootton, the two ex-jockeys, were at Windsor July 28. The former was wounded in the recent "push" in Flanders, where his gallant conduct under fire with a bombing party has earned for him the Military Cross. He was congratulated on all sides while at the track.

The seventeen yearlings purchased by A. K. Macomber from J. B. Joel in England have been shipped on the Minnehaha from Liverpool and should arrive in New York next week. Although not successful with his costly purchases abroad last year, Mr. Macomber is on the right track in sticking to the Joel bred stock. His reward is bound to come in time.

The American trainer, McCreery, saddled three winners at Berlin-Gruenewald on July 16 for Freiherr S. A. von Oppenheim. Archibald, the American jockey, rode two of them, the four-year-old Masher (by William the Third—Masha) and his two-year-old half-sister, Maja (by Caius—Masha). The third winner, Invicta (by Hannibal), which won the chief race of the day, the Kincsem Rennen (one and one-half miles, for $3,250), was ridden by Wodke. Archibald being on her stable companion, Ariel, which was second.

The Meddler—Ballantrae filly that George D. Widener bought out of the Clarence Mackay sale Saturday for $3,000 may prove one of the bargains of the sale. She was sold at that figure for the reason that she has a bad knee as the result of an injury while she was being led from one farm to another in France. It is entirely possible she will be brought to the races, but in any event should prove a sterling broodmare. She was named Bandana in France and is a sister to Mediant, Night Rider II., Melody, Balancoire and a half-sister to Carrolton.

Lieut. A. G. Spalding, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers, who fell in action on July 1, was the adopted son of the late A. G. Spalding, head of the well-known firm of sporting goods outfitters. At the outbreak of the war he was representing the firm in Europe, and in August, 1914, enlisted in the Coldstream Guards as a private. He was promoted to a lieutenancy in December, 1915, for conspicuous bravery and attached to the Fusiliers. He was twenty-five years old, was a graduate of Raja Yoga College, Point Loma, California.—London Sportsman.

That foreign-bred horses are not the equal of our home-bred racers has been shown this year. There are scores of foreign horses in this country, but they have cut little figure on the turf in so far as winning rich stakes are concerned. Many of them have won overnight handicaps or selling races, but only one horse, the Irish-bred Short Grass, has displayed either speed or stamina to warrant the belief that they are in the class with our first-class thoroughbreds. At the beginning of the season their poor form was excused on the ground that they were not acclimated, but now they have had plenty of time in which to become used to our climate and conditions, but still they are far from being world-beaters.—New York Sun.

DATES CLAIMED FOR THIRD WINDSOR TRACK.

Montreal, Que., August 16.—The management of the Back River Jockey Club has planned an attractive program book for the second meeting at the Mount Royal track in this city, opening on Saturday next, August 19, and continuing up to and including Saturday, August 26.

The club will cater liberally to seeplechasing this season and as the course is a splendid one the contests run over it should be high class. The course is without exception the safest to race over of any of the Canadian tracks, it being a graded course with good footing, while the purses to be hung up for the events will make them attractive to all owners of such classes of horses. There will be no steeplechase event run with a purse of a value less than $600 while more valuable handicaps will be given during the seven days of racing. There will be no stakes run at the meeting, but they will be replaced by valuable overnight handicaps, which should attract good fields. As this meeting runs previous to the meeting at Connaught Park at Ottawa and the meeting at Blue Bonnets and Dorval, it will give horsemen twenty-eight days of racing in the vicinity of Montreal with little or no shipping. The promoters of the Back River Jockey Club are also largely interested in the building of the new track at Windsor, which is to be named Devonshire Park, out of compliment to the new governor-general of Canada, who is to arrive early in October. The Mount Royal dates were changed so as to give the new course at Windsor the dates from Saturday, September 23, to Saturday, September 30, inclusive. The club will run numerous handicaps during the Windsor meeting.

WINDSOR'S GRAND OPENING

VAST ASSEMBLAGE OF SPECTATORS WELCOMES THE RETURN OF RACING.

Slow Going Affects Results—All Smiles Unexpectedly Wins the Stake Race of the Day and Defeats Borrow.

Windsor, Ont., August 16.—E. T. Zollicoffer's colt All Smiles accounted for the feature of the Windsor Jockey Club's opening when he beat the Whitney crack Borrow, in easy fashion in the Detroit & Windsor Ferry Co. Handicap. The conditions of this race called for a dash of one mile and a sixteenth. It had $3,000 in added money and four starters went to the post. Borrow was a heavily-backed favorite. He flattered his backers by going to the front at the start and leading for seven-eighths. In the homestretch All Smiles moved up with a rush and, easily passing Borrow, drew away into a decisive lead in the final eighth.

Instituted in 1909, and run each year since, the Detroit & Windsor Ferry Co. Handicap has become a popular feature of Windsor racing. Its condensed history follows:

Year.	Winner.	A.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1909	All Red	3	97	C. Ross	$1,150	1:40⅕
1910	Fort Johnson	5	106	Taplin	770	1:48⅗
1911	Plate Glass	5	117	T. Rice	1,155	1:38⅗
1912	Buckhorn	3	102	Teahan	1,450	1:45⅕
1913	Lochiel	5	102	Buxton	1,830	1:45⅘
1914	Nightstick	4	113	J. Callahan.	2,230	1:46⅘
1915	Borrow	7	133	J. Notter.	2,520	1:47
1916	All Smiles	4	103	F. Robinson	2,850	1:47⅘

Run at 1 mile prior to 1912.

The opening of the final meeting for the present year of the Windsor Jockey Club drew out an immense gathering. The attendance was up to the standard established at the previous meeting and speculation was equally heavy. Close finishes attended the running of a majority of the races and much enthusiasm was manifested.

H. D. Brown, who was a visitor, stated that he would shortly announce his dates for the coming winter meeting in Cuba and would outline his plans to the horsemen. He said that he was certain they would meet with approval and that he already had the assurance of sufficient horses to hold a splendid meeting at Oriental Park. There will be many new stables racing at the Cuban track next winter. The good reports brought back by Schuyler L. Parsons, H. K. Knapp, C. J. Fitzgerald and others, will result in many new recruits for Cuban racing. Mr. Brown announced that the new boat constructed by the Florida East Coast Railroad will be put in commission Sept. 1. This boat is of sufficient size to accomodate any sized car and is licensed by the United States government to carry passengers. Mr. Brown left for Saratoga tonight.

George Richings returned from Kentucky, where he went in search of yearlings. He reports a number of the youngsters to be suffering from an eye trouble and was unable to pick up anything. All the horses in the Williams Bros. stable at Lexington are sick and five of the number have fever with temperatures ranging from 102 to 106. Impression is in worse condition than any of the others.

Jockey Paul Lowder has been ordered to report to James Rowe and will leave for Saratoga tomorrow night.

Among the distinguished visitors at Windsor this afternoon were W. P. Fraser, secretary of the Ontario Jockey Club and one of the acting stewards here; Thomas Prendergast, of Kansas City; Enoch Hughes; John P. McInerney, of Buffalo, and H. D. Brown.

Jockey Keogh arrived from Saratoga this morning. He came to ride Borrow in today's stake and left after the running of the races this afternoon.

Frank J. Bruen distributed stake blanks for the Douglas Park, Latonia and Churchill Downs meetings among the horsemen this afternoon.

J. O. Talbott has turned out until next spring, at a farm near Saratoga, Prince Henry, Slumber II., Emden and the two-year-old Cleanup. The latter was troubled with bad ankles, which have been fired and blistered.

The track was slow today, as the result of rain last night, but will be fast for tomorrow's racing.

Claims were lodged for Marianao after she won by J. B. Respess, R. E. Watkins, W. Fenwick, C. T. Worthington and G. Alexandra and, in the drawing, Watkins got the mare for $1,300.

OPERATION OF THE NEW CLAIMING RULE.

The operation of the claiming-race rule resulted in twenty-three horses changing owners during the seven days of the Fort Erie meeting, twenty-two of them in the first six days. HILLCREST FAVORITES PROVE TREACHEROUS.

Toronto, Ont., August 16.—Followers of form had a stormy experience at Hillcrest today, one solitary choice scoring, that being Glint in the seventh race, and he only got the verdict in the final stride. Royal Tea also scored by a narrow margin in the concluding race. The other winners won by rather comfortable margins. Frank Patterson and Rescue were winners that came from unexpected quarters.

The stake blanks for the Laurel meeting were distributed among the horsemen here today.

J. S. Whatley purchased the two-year-old Coincidence privately from W. F. King.

Jockeys H. Watts and F. Cummings were suspended for the remainder of the meeting for rough riding.

C. A. Davies claimed Glint for $545. The claim was protested on a technicality and the judges have the matter under consideration.
